INTERNET SITES TO SUPPORT LEARNING:

Some parents asked for information about these sites in order to support their children's learning. There are many sites listed on the DBS website under KS2 curriculum – Maths. Other useful sites are: primaryresources; woodlands junior school and various BBC sites.

MOBILE PHONES: A number of children have been coming to school with mobile phones. This is a reminder that mobile phones are NOT allowed in school.

From Sunday November 2nd the newsletter will be available on the school website.
