

It has been a very busy and fun week in Pre-school and the children have had a wonderful time learning all about insects. They have been learning the rhyme "Incy Wincy Spider" and Pre-school Red performed it on the stage for the whole of Reception and pre-school. they were AMAZING! The children have been exploring outdoors and have been on bug hunts to see what insects they could find. Next week, the children will be learning the rhyme "Baa Baa Black Sheep" and will start to learn about farm animals.
