

The children have enjoyed their learning about summer and finished off the week by celebrating with some special summer activities, including wearing their summer clothes to school. Next week the children will continue their learning about seasons, and will focus on Autumn. They will be looking at the book “We’re Going on a Bear Hunt” by Michael Rosen. The children will be focussing on their communication and language, and using Talk for Writing will retell the story using words and actions.

MESSAGE FROM THE TEACHERS:

Happy Garangao for this weekend and if you are celebrating, I hope you all have a lovely weekend.

HOME ACTIVITY:

Talk about different ways that you can be kind to your friends.
