A Day of Solidarity with Palestine – Thursday 19th October

Dear parents,

On Thursday 19th October, in light of the humanitarian crisis taking place in Gaza, we're placing a pronounced emphasis on our solidarity with the Palestinian people. We firmly believe that our commitment to inclusivity and harmony extends to standing with those who are struggling for their basic human rights.

Our vibrant global community is a testament to the shared values and spirit of togetherness we nurture at DBS. Staff and students are encouraged to wear items of clothing or bring Palestinian flags into school as a sign of solidarity. We will also be dedicating a moment of silence at DBS in honour of Palestine. Activities and awareness of the current crisis is taking place during Arabic lessons. Our aim is to celebrate our diverse backgrounds and to send a powerful message of support, unity, peace, and hope. In light of this, DBS Ain Khaled's recognition of cancer awareness for Pinktober will now take place on Tuesday, 31st October.

Furthermore, in our ongoing efforts to actively relieve the humanitarian crisis in Palestine, we're looking to launch a fundraising initiative with our local charity providers. We will keep you updated in this regard. Your generosity will go a long way in making a tangible difference, and we truly appreciate any support you can offer.

Should any parent wish to discuss this initiative or any other matter, I am always available for conversation. You can reach out to me directly via the email address below.
