Dear parents,

This week in school we have been visited by evaluators from the Council Of International Schools as part of our accreditation cycle. Becoming a CIS member is a rigorous but hugely rewarding process and a great deal of effort has already been made by many members of our school community in regards to becoming prepared for this stage – the preparatory visit. After this week, we will embark upon a self-study period during which we must demonstrate our ongoing commitment to ensuring that we not only strive for continuous improvements but also put our whole school community at the forefront of our plans. We are fully aligned with the ethos and core principles of CIS and it has been a genuine pleasure to work alongside our visitors this week just as it will also be a privilege to continue to grow as a CIS member school. In a few weeks, a report regarding this week's visit will be sent to us and I will ensure that this is shared with all parents.

We are already, of course, a school with many successes to celebrate. As parents will recall, it is less than a year since we were judged to be outstanding during our BSO inspection, and since this time we have continued to make even further improvements to our school. Last week, for example, our first ever cohort of IGCSE students received their results for these exams, with over a 98% average pass rate and the percentage of students being awarded the very highest grades being well above the UK average. We are all very proud of our brilliant students and we wish them every success as they now begin their AS courses with us. The excellent IGCSE grades are a result of both the hard work and talent of our students and the superb teaching abilities and experience of their teachers.

As always, if any parents would like to contact me directly regarding this information, I would welcome them to do so via the email address below.

Yours sincerely,

Steven Miles.
