*Our core purpose is that every young person should gain as much as possible from our school,

September 09 2022

Dear parents,

Following last week's hugely successful visit to our school by CIS evaluators, we are this week very happy to welcome QNSA inspectors to DBS Wakra. Taking part in accreditation processes are an important component of any outward-facing and ambitious organisation, and we will always be proud to celebrate the many things we do well here with any officials who wish to dive deeply into the way we work at DBS Wakra. To this end, I am grateful to any parents who have agreed to meet online with inspectors today via links which were communicated earlier this week. In due course, we hope to be able to publish reports for both the CIS visit and the QNSA inspection which our community will enjoy reading.

I would like to express my gratitude, once again, to all parents for their support with the beginning of the academic year. All schools work best when routines and rules are adhered to correctly by all, and the vast majority of our students are arriving on time and safely each day wearing very smart-looking uniforms and fully prepared for learning. Supporting a young person towards academic excellence is very much a partnership between school and home, and what we can clearly see in DBS Wakra are both key components working together very well indeed. Again, thank you – this collegiality will help a great deal in the long run.

As always, if any parents would like to contact me directly regarding this information, I would welcome them to do so via the email address below.

Yours sincerely,

Steven Miles.
